

Bloom Broadband Acceptable Use Policy

Acceptable Use Policy for Bloom Internet Service

Bloom's goal is to provide its customers with the best residential cable Internet service possible. In order to accomplish this, Bloom has adopted this Acceptable Use Policy (the "Policy"). This Policy outlines the acceptable use of the Bloom Broadband Internet Service ("the "Service"). This Policy is in addition to any restrictions contained in the Agreement for Residential Internet Service (the "Agreement") available at www.bloombroadband.com. All capitalized terms used in this Policy not defined here have the meanings given to them in the Agreement.

Bloom reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to immediately restrict, suspend, disconnect or terminate the Service for failure to comply with any portion of this Policy, as determined in Bloom's sole discretion, without prior notice. Any violation of this Policy may lead to prosecution under state and/or federal law.

All Bloom Internet customers and all others who use the Service (the "customer", "user", "you", or "your") must comply with this Policy. Your failure to comply with this Policy could result in the suspension or termination of your Service account. If you do not agree to comply with this Policy you must immediately stop all use of the Service and notify Bloom, in accordance with the Agreement, so that we can close your account.

In addition to being responsible for your own compliance with this Policy, you are also responsible for any use or misuse of the Service that violates this Policy, the Agreement, or any other Bloom policy, even if it was committed by a friend, family member, guest or an authorized or unauthorized third party with access to your Service and/or account. Therefore, you must take steps to ensure that others do not use your account to gain unauthorized access to the Service by, for example, securing access to your wireless network. All devices and/or files should be protected with a strong password or otherwise appropriate measure. In all cases, you are solely responsible for the security of any device you choose to connect to the Service, including any data stored or shared on that device.

It is also your responsibility to secure the Customer Equipment and any other Premises equipment or programs that connect to the Service from external threats such as viruses, spam, bot nets and other methods of intrusion.

Changes to the Policy and Reporting Violations

Bloom may revise this Policy from time to time by posting a new version on the Web site at www.bloombroadband.com or any successor URL(s) (the "Bloom Web site"). Bloom will use reasonable efforts to make customers aware of any change to this Policy which may include sending email or postal announcements or posting information on the Bloom Web site. Revised versions of this Policy are effective immediately upon posting. Accordingly, customers of the Service should read any Bloom announcements they receive and regularly visit the Bloom Web site and review this Policy to ensure that their activities conform to the most recent version. You can ask questions regarding this Policy and report violations of it by calling the Bloom Internet Customer Support Center at 877.735.6089.

any computer, cable or telecommunications system, network, software, data, information, or any other proprietary material. You will not use, or allow others to use, tools designed for compromising network security, such as password-guessing programs, cracking tools, packet sniffers or network probing tools. In addition, you will not participate in, or allow others to participate in, the collection of e-mail addresses, screen names, or other identifiers of others (without their prior consent), a practice known as spidering or harvesting, or participate in the use of software (including "adware" or "spyware") designed to facilitate this activity.

10. No System Disruption

You will not use, or allow others to use, the Service to disrupt Blooms network or computer equipment owned by Bloom or other Bloom customers. This includes, but is not limited to, improperly interfering with, inhibiting, degrading, or restricting the use and operation of the Service by others, sending or receiving excessive data transfers (as determined in Bloom's sole discretion) for the package or tier of service to which You are subscribed, or modifying or altering in any manner any modem or modem configuration so as to allow it use beyond the parameters outlined by the specific level of service to which You subscribe. You also agree that you will not use, or allow others to use, the Service to disrupt other Internet Service Providers ("ISPs") or services, including, but not limited to, e-mail bombing or the use of mass mailing programs. You also agree that you may not use bandwidth in excess of that associated with the package or tier of service to which you subscribe.

You will not access or use, or allow others to access or use, the Service with anything other than a dynamic Internet Protocol ("IP") address that adheres to the dynamic host configuration protocol ("DHCP"). You may not configure the Service or any related equipment to access or use a static IP address or use any protocol other than DHCP.

11. Security

You are solely responsible for the security of any device connected to the Service, including any data stored on that device. Bloom recommends that you take appropriate security precautions for any systems or devices connected to the Service. You are responsible for securing any wireless ("Wi-Fi") networks connected to the Service. Any wireless network that is unsecured or "open" and connected to the Bloom network will be deemed to be operating as an ISP and subject to the prohibition on commercial use set forth above.

12. No Impersonation or Forgery

You will not, or allow others to, impersonate another user, falsify one's user name, company name, age or identity in e-mail or in any post or transmission to any newsgroup or mailing list or other similar groups or lists, or knowingly or unknowingly create or use an e-mail address that has the effect of being misleading. You will not, or allow others to, forge, alter, or remove any message header of any transmission, originating or passing through the Service. You will not, or allow others to, forge anyone else's digital or manual signature.

13. No Excessive Use of Bandwidth

The Service is for personal and non-commercial residential use only. Therefore, Bloom reserves the right to restrict, suspend or terminate Service where data consumption is not characteristic of a typical residential user of the Service as determined by Bloom in its sole discretion. Bloom has established a monthly data consumption threshold per account as indicated in the following table.

Bloom Broadband Acceptable Use Policy

*Subscribed Plan	Monthly Data Consumption Threshold
Bloom 25	500 GB
Bloom 50	1 TB
Bloom 100	1.5 TB
Bloom 300	1.5 TB
Any Other Plan	150 GB

*Not all plans available at all locations

Use of the Service in excess of the established monthly threshold is excessive use and a violation of the Policy. Common activities that may cause excessive data consumption in violation of this Policy include, but are not limited to, numerous or continuous bulk transfers of files and other high capacity traffic using (1) file transfer protocol ("FTP"), (2) peer-to-peer applications, and (3) newsgroups. You must ensure that your use of the Service does not restrict, inhibit, interfere with, or degrade any other person's use of the Service, nor represent (as determined by Bloom in its sole discretion) an overly large burden on the network. In addition, you must ensure that your use of the Service does not limit or interfere with Bloom's ability to deliver and monitor the Service or any part of its network. If you use the Service in violation of the restriction referenced above, that is a violation of this Policy. In these cases, Bloom may, in its sole discretion, restrict, suspend or terminate your Service or require that you pay an over-use fee. Bloom's determination of the data consumption for Service is final.

In the event you exceed your data transfer limit in a given month, you may purchase up to 100GB of extra data transfer capacity by contacting our Technical Support Center. Additional data transfer capacity purchased during a month expires at the end of the month in which it was purchased. Extra data transfer capacity purchases are non-refundable and do not roll over to the next or any following month.

14. No "Viruses"

You will not use, or allow others to use the Service to transmit computer "viruses", worms, "Trojan Horses", denial of service attacks or other harmful software programs or information containing any lock, key, bomb, worm, bot, or other harmful feature. You will use standard practices to prevent the transmission of viruses, or other harmful software and information. As software or other content downloaded from the Service may contain viruses, it is Your sole responsibility to take appropriate precautions to protect your devices from damage to software, files and/or other data of any kind.

15. Right to Monitor

Neither Bloom nor any of its affiliates, suppliers, or agents, have any obligation to monitor transmissions or postings (including, but not limited to, e-mail, newsgroup, and instant message transmissions as well as materials available on the Service. However, Bloom and its affiliates, suppliers, and agents have the right to monitor these transmissions and postings from time to time for violations of this Policy, including for purposes of management of the network and implementing limitation of bandwidth use and to disclose, block or remove them in accordance with the Agreement and any other applicable agreements and policies.

Bloom owns any and all email addresses associated with the Service and reserves the right to reclaim any such e-mail address at any time and for any reason.

16. No Waiver

Bloom Broadband Acceptable Use Policy

The failure by Bloom or its affiliates to enforce any provision of this Policy at any given point in time shall not be construed as a waiver of any right to do so at any future time thereafter.

17. Conflict

In the event of a conflict between the Agreement and this Policy, the terms of the Agreement will prevail.
